PLYING PISH STORY.

Chief Engineer Cress of the City of Puebla tells of the miracuous escape from death of a malolo or flying fish aboard the transport while on the way from

San Francisco to this port.

It was noticed one day that one of the pump valves was stopped up and, upon opening the faucet wide, a flying fish popped out and began swimming about briskly in the bucket beneath.

Before making the appearace in the bucket, the fish had to do a lot of traveling by a rather cir-cuitous route. It undoubtedly into and through a one-inch pipe with two sharp turns and thence into a three quarter inch pipe, be satisfied. The Anchor Se through the faucet out into the is here to please its patrons. open air again.

This is a faithful account of the peregrinations of a simple little flying fish, vouched for by the officers of the ship, whose word cannot be doubted. The fish that made this wonderful journey without mishap, has been stuffed, and is now on exhibition in the Engineer's Department of Uncla Sam's California Fruits. neer's Department of Uncle Sam's fastest transport.
